

Coalition America Completes Purchase of Assets of OPN eHealth Services, Ltd.

Atlanta, Georgia – July 29, 2010. Coalition America announced today that it has completed the acquisition of the assets of OPN eHealth Services, Ltd., formerly known as Ohio Preferred Network (OPN), an Ohio based provider network. Coalition America will offer its clients immediate access to these providers through its comprehensive cost containment solutions.

Mollie Gordon Brown, President of Coalition America stated, “The addition of these 36,000 Ohio provider contracts further illustrates our commitment to provide optimal medical cost savings.” Tina Ellex, COO added, “We are confident our clients will recognize the rewards of our continuing efforts to increase the breadth and depth of our proprietary network offering. In addition, this will position Coalition America to offer auto-liability savings in the future.”

“Clients of OPN eHealth will continue to experience uninterrupted services through their agreements with OPN eHealth, and will work with their current contacts at our organization,” commented Marlin Wilcox, CEO of OPN eHealth Services, Ltd.
